We do not require a faculty for a single temporary wooden grave marker with name, age, date of death plaque placed at time of burial. Any other marker including replacement or refurbishment of above does require a faculty. Faculties must be applied for through the incumbent in the first instance. N.B. No temporary markers are permitted in the New Cremated remains area. No markers are permitted in the memorial garden other than the plaques supplied through the PCC.

* includes preparation of standard ash plot, new or Re-opening. Not including Broaching of concrete, moving of slabs, monuments, curbs, chippings.

 Assumes burial in Existing grave plot, Cremated remains area or Memorial Garden

NOTE: Burial of Body in churchyard does not include removal of existing monuments, chippings, edgings, concrete or digging of grave.

 This figure is included in the totals for burial of ashes in the churchyard. It does not include provision for broaching concrete or other special preparation
